Audit Results

At the end of 2022, a comprehensive three-year audit was carried out by the Office of the Washington State Auditor (SAO). SAO conducted both financial and accountability audits resulting in no findings. To ensure a seamless State Audit, Audra Trainer, the Finance Director, and Staci Hebert, Financial Analyst, and other personnel labored diligently and invested countless hours in vetting 2019, 2020, and 2021. Thanks to their dedication, the Port of Kingston has greatly advanced its financial standing. Presently, it holds $2.5 million in reserves and a single remaining bond of $700,000. This bolstered financial standing puts the Port in an excellent position to obtain financing for necessary improvements and preservation activities, furthering the Port's primary purpose of providing Economic Development to the local community. These outcomes and the Annual reports are located on the Port of Kingston website. The latest Financials and Annual report will be made available in the upcoming weeks.

Ready for Summer

As Spring blooms, we here at the Port look forward to Summer with great anticipation. Public access is of paramount importance to us and we take it seriously as part of our commitment to fulfilling our duties.

With some amazing prospects ahead, you could soon find yourself taking a leisurely ride on a Stand-Up Paddle board or kayak in Apple Tree Cove on a sun-filled day in the stunning Pacific Northwest.

Stay tuned for updates.
