4th of July Celebration

Get ready to experience the best of Kingston and celebrate the 4th of July. Join in the most anticipated two-day event of the year! Starting on Monday, July 3rd, the festivities begin at Mike Wallace Park with a cornhole tournament, live music, with beer, wine, and spirits available from 4:00-9:00 PM. On Tuesday, July 4th, the fun continues at the Kingston Cove Yacht Club with a pancake breakfast. Get in the spirit of the celebration with a parade through downtown from 12:00-1:00 PM. Plus, there will be plenty of exciting activities for the whole family such as a ball race, a bouncy house for the kids, and more live music. To top off the evening, a spectacular fireworks display will light up the sky to end this celebration!

Friendly New Faces at the Port

Welcome to Caden Krantz, a full-time seasonal Landscape Assistant who is also attending Washington State University. Caden is currently studying Sports Management and brings a strong work ethic and a passion for the outdoors to his role. His attention to detail and commitment to creating beautiful landscapes make him an invaluable asset to our team.

We also extend a warm welcome to Nicole Novack, a full-time Seasonal Marina Attendant. Nicole is pursuing her undergraduate degree in Human Biology at Washington State University. Her dedication to her studies and her enthusiasm for marine life make her an excellent addition to our team. Nicole's expertise and friendly nature ensure that visitors to the marina have a positive and informative experience.

Lastly, we are excited to introduce Carter Krantz, a seasonal part-time Marina Attendant at the Port of Kingston! Carter is currently attending Washington State University, where he is diligently working towards his undergraduate degree in Construction Management. Carter brings valuable knowledge and skills to his role at the marina.

All three of these exceptional individuals reside in Kingston and share a dedication to their studies and their roles within the community. We are thrilled to have them as part of our team at the Port of Kingston and look forward to the contributions they will make during their time with us.
